Dear Madam,

re: Greensleeves, Barcombe, Sussex

We thank you for your letter of the 31st ultimo regarding our advertisement in the Times of August 29th and we have pleasure in enclosing herewith particulars of the above which is the property in question.

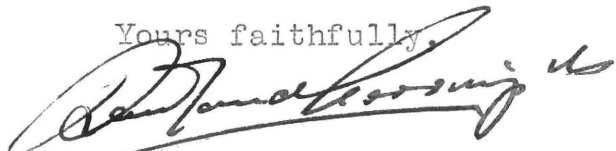

With regard to the term for which this is available, we would advise you that it is in fact available from now until May 1st, 1960 and although we note that you would not wish to take a property until the end of October it may be possible to come to some arrangement about the dates if you are interested.

The property is in excellent condition, comfortably furnished and in a nice position and, as you will note from the particulars, the rent asked is 8½ gns. per week, Subject to Agreement.

We look forward to hearing whether or not you are interested in renting the above and would advise that an early decision should be made in case any further Applicants come forward within the next day or so.

Assuring you of our best attention.

Yours faithfully,

Enc.
